

Latinx Heritage Month 2018 at Mizzou

September 15 - October 15

Association of Latin@ American Students Week: 9/24 - 9/27

“Dinero”: Professional Development Workshop

9/24

Join ALAS for a professional development workshop at 7 p.m. in Cornell Hall room 217. Please bring laptops for a resume workshop. Free headshots available!

“I Like It”: Afro-Latinx + The Race Card Discussion

9/25

Join ALAS at 7 p.m. in the MU Multicultural Center as members of the ALAS Executive team lead a talk about intersectionality. Stick around for “The Race Game.”

Te Botè: Mental Health & Relationships

9/26

Join ALAS and STARS (Stronger Together Against Relationship and Sexual Violence) in the MU Multicultural Center at 7 p.m. for tips on how to stay healthy.

Mi Gente: Noche Latinx Social

9/27

Everybody is welcome to celebrate Latinx Heritage Month with ALAS at 7 p.m. in Stotler Lounge. There will be food. Bring your friends!

---

Meeting the Diversity Demands & Cultural Practices in Higher Education

9/26

Join Dr. Christine Sleeter from California State University in Monsanto Auditorium (Bond Life Science Center, 1201 Rollins St.) from 10-11:30 a.m. to discuss her program on inclusive teaching and learning communities in higher education. More information.

Dr. Christine Sleeter Talk & Book Signing for “The Inheritance”

9/26

Join Dr. Christine Sleeter from California State University in Anheuser-Busch Conservation Auditorium from 6:30-7:30 p.m. to discuss her research on anti-racist multicultural education, ethnic studies and teacher education. Book signing to follow from 7:30-8:15 p.m. More information.

Latinx Graduate and Professional Network Presents Guest Speaker: Israel Garcia

10/4

Join LGPN at Memorial Union South 16 from 5:30-7:30 p.m. Sponsored by LGPN and MU Division of Inclusion, Diversity and Equity (IDE). Israel Garcia will speak about his project, Bordes Carnosos (Border Carnage), which documents the immigrant experience in Kansas City latinx neighborhoods.

“First Friday with Centro Latino: Latin@ Heritage Celebration

10/5

Join Centro Latino for “First Friday” at ARTlandish Gallery Catacombs in the North Village Arts District (1019 E Walnut St. Columbia, Mo 65201) from 6-9 p.m. More information.

MU Voz Latina Presents: Latino Family Picnic and Celebration

10/13

Join MU Voz Latina from 12-4 p.m. at Cosmo Park (Burford Shelter). Open to MU faculty, staff, students and the Columbia community. MU Voz Latina will provide a main dish. Please bring a side dish from your country, region, or culture. Music, dancing, games, speakers and activities for adults and children. Sponsored by MU Voz Latina. More information.

LGPN Presents: Pan Dulce Talk with Guadalupe Pérez-Anzaldo

10/17

Joining LGPN at the MU Student Center in room 2206-A from 6-7:30 p.m. Enjoy free pan dulce (sweet bread), coffee and a presentation and discussion on Displacement and Identity in Latinx Literature: Nadie es el Otro.

University of Missouri

